DIVISION SEVEN (Continued)

B186661 People (Certified for Publication)
v.
Rodriguez

The judgment is reversed and the cause is remanded to the trial court with directions to conduct a new evidentiary hearing and make a factual determination as to whether at the time of the traffic stop defendant's car had a burnt out brake light or the officers could reasonably have suspected it had a burnt out brake light. If the court determines the brake light was burnt out at the time of the traffic stop or the officers could have reasonably suspected the brake light was burnt out, it shall reinstate the judgment. If the court determines the brake light was not burnt out at the time of the traffic stop and no reasonable person could have believed otherwise it shall grant the defendant's suppression motion and proceed in accordance with the law. The defendant is entitled to be present at the rehearing of the suppression motion.

Johnson, J.

I concur: Zelon, J.
I dissent: Perluss, P.J. (Opinion)
